Dear Ms. Straub,

Thank you for your letter concerning the scholarship. I am very happy to receive it, and I will explain to you and the committee what I have planned.

In July, the American Association of Law Libraries will hold their annual conference. As you know, the conference is in New York. I am in the process of making reservations to attend the conference, and I would like to use the scholarship for travel and hotel expenses.

I look forward to your reply. Again, thank you for accepting my application for the Lucille Elliott Scholarship.

Sincerely,

Jane Needham
